

GENERAL PERFORMANCE OFFICIALS CLINIC

WITH WENDY JOHNSTON

Centre 200, Sydney, NS

July 21st & 22nd, 2018

Registration Deadline: Friday, July 13th, 2018

NSEF is offering an opportunity for those interested in the General Performance Provincial Officials Program to complete Module 2 and/or Module 3.

About the Clinician: Wendy Johnston, lives in Bowden, Alberta. Wendy has been working as an Equine Science Lecturer and coach for over 30 years. She is currently employed as an Instructor in the Equine Science program at Olds College. Wendy is a certified NCCP Competition Coach Specialist. She is also a Coach Developer both facilitating courses at all NCCP Coaching levels and evaluating Coaching Candidates. NSEF has received positive feedback when we have used her both as a clinician and an evaluator. She is also a certified Equestrian Canada and Alberta Equestrian Federation General Performance and Western Judge. Wendy is an active competitor in the sport of Reining.

NSEF will be offering two modules through a combination of home study and the in-person session at the Sydney Horse Expo.

The majority of Module 2 (General Performance Specific Training Module) - will be done by home study in addition to participation at the Sydney Horse Expo's Officials Training session. Participants will receive a package by email to complete before July 21st, 2018.

Module 3 (Mentoring) will be completed at the Sydney Horse Expo. Participants will be provided with a package to score the assigned classes on Saturday and Sunday. One half hour (1/2) following the end of Sunday's competition, there will be a two-hour session with the clinician. This session will include information and discussion with the judge. Clinic participants will submit class score cards provided by NSEF as part of this session.

Tentative Scoring Schedule:

Saturday July 21st - approximately 9:00 a.m. - 5:00p.m.

Showmanship - Youth

Reining - Open

Hunter Under Saddle Pleasure - Youth

Hunt Seat Equitation - Youth

Trail - Youth

Sunday July 22nd - approximately 11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
