

THE CODE OF ETHICS and CONDUCT of the NOVA SCOTIA EQUESTRIAN FEDERATION

The Nova Scotia Equestrian Federation (NSEF) adheres to the most current Equestrian Canada's (EC) Code of Ethics.

Application and Structure of the Code of Ethics

1. All members of the NSEF and EC (including temporary members) shall be bound by this Code of Ethics.
2. All members of other National and Provincial Federations must agree to be bound by the rules of EC while competing or exhibiting at EC-sanctioned competitions.
3. All members of other National and Provincial Federations must agree to be bound by the rules of NSEF while competing or exhibiting at NSEF-sanctioned competitions.
4. The Code of Ethics consists of four parts: The Preamble, the Statement of Principle, the Code of Conduct and Further Expectations of an EC member. The Statement of Principle is to be considered an interpretive guide in applying the Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct is mandatory in character and is enforceable.

Preamble

We believe:

That equestrian sport is based on a partnership between horse and human athlete;
That it is the right and responsibility of Equine Canada and Nova Scotia Equestrian Federation to set standards in matters of ethics, sportsmanship and the welfare of the horse and in all matters under its jurisdiction;

That it is desirable to define ethical practices, the delineate unethical practices, to encourage good sportsmanship, fair play, safety and high ethical behavior and to warn, censure or bring to public attention and discipline those who commit acts detrimental to the best interests of stakeholders;

That NSEF members should observe the spirit as well as the letter of this Code of Ethics;

That membership is a privilege, not a right, and that membership may be suspended, terminated or rejected following appropriate disciplinary procedures.

Statement of Principles

The Nova Scotia Equestrian Federation, the provincial equestrian federation in Nova Scotia, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all competitions under its jurisdiction.

NSEF is committed to:

Upholding the welfare of the horses, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities;

Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect and the compassion that they deserve, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment;

Ensuring that owners, trainers and exhibitors or their agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose;

Providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure;

Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare;

Requiring owners, trainers and exhibitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules, and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competition;

Reviewing, revising and developing competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of the horses.

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a person, informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive, nor inhumane.

Member Code of Conduct

1. All members shall conduct themselves in a manner which reflects the values and ethics of NSEF and EC. Any member who engages in or is party to conduct inappropriate to an NSEF member will be subject, after due process, to such sanctions as the Federation may impose.
2. All NSEF members shall support the enforcement of the rules of the Federation by: Personal knowledge and compliance, agreeing to report any alleged infractions and occasions of alleged abuse at NSEF/EC-sanctioned competitions,
3. The organizers of NSEF/ EC-sanctioned competitions shall operate within the rules of the Federation,
4. A member shall be completely trustworthy, exhibit honesty, loyalty and discretion in all equestrian-related activities.
5. A member shall issue public statements only in an objective and truthful manner.
6. The NSEF member shall uphold issues of safety and fairness in all aspects of equestrian sport.
7. No member shall act to the detriment of others or equestrian sport in a situation where the responsibility of their position places them in a conflict of interest.

Further Expectations of an NSEF Member

1. Members are encouraged to continuously educate themselves and to take an active role in the activities of the Federation.
2. The NSEF member should strive to preserve and enhance the image of the sport so that society's respect will be maintained.
