Make Ethical Decisions Online Instructor Evaluation (MED Online Evaluation - Instruction)

This evaluation helps coaches identify the legal, ethical, and moral implications of difficult situations that present themselves in the world of team and individual sport. A Pass is required. By taking the Making Ethical Decisions Module of the Equestrian Theory Course, students will be better prepared to take the online evaluation.

This multisport evaluation is done online at www.coach.ca. There are four types of MED Online Evaluations. The requirement for this program is the Instruction or Competition-Introduction Evaluation. (If you also plan to become a certified Competition Coach the Competition-Introduction MED Online Evaluation will count towards both certifications.)

To take the evaluation:

- Go to coach.ca - on the right hand side there is a grey "My Locker" menu bar. In this menu, choose the "e-learning" option. This will take you to the Locker Login Screen.
- If you have a NCCP Coaching number (NCCP#) then you will need to put it in or look it up. You may have a NCCP# if you coach another sport, taken coach training modules, or from taking/registering the Equestrian Theory Course.
- If you don't have a CC#, click on the link below the log in area to register with The Locker and follow the instructions.
- If you have difficulty with the log in or registration process, email coach@coach.ca
- Once logged in choose the Making Ethical Decisions Evaluation - Instruction (or Competition - Introduction) from the e-learning options on the left hand side of the screen.

Please note if you complete the MED Online Evaluation before taking the Making Ethical Decisions Training Module, there is a non-refundable $85 fee to take the evaluation. If you take the NCCP Make Ethical Decisions module before taking the MED Online Evaluation then the MED Online is free. Candidates can take the Make Ethical Decision Module through the Equestrian Theory Course or through a multi-sport training.

NCCP Making Head Way in Sport concussion module The importance of understanding concussions as a coach at any level cannot be understated. The Making Head Way in Sport is an award winning eLearning resource for recognizing concussion and implementing proper return to play protocols. There are serious implications of undiagnosed concussions and improper return to play protocols which can affect the long-term wellbeing of an athlete. Making Head Way in Sport is an online learning tool designed to help coaches gain the knowledge and skills required to ensure the safety of their athletes. This NCCP Module covers: What to do to prevent concussions, how to recognize the signs and symptoms of a concussion, what to do when you suspect an athlete has a concussion, how to ensure athletes return to play safely.

To take the module:

- Go to coach.ca - on the right hand side there is a grey “My Locker” menu bar. In this menu, choose the “e-learning” option. This will take you to the Locker Login Screen.
- If you have a NCCP Coaching number (NCCP#) then you will need to put it in or look it up. You may have a NCCP# if you coach another sport, taken coach training modules, or from taking/registering the Equestrian Theory Course.
- If you don't have a CC#, click on the link below the log in area to register with The Locker and follow the instructions.
- If you have difficulty with the log in or registration process, email coach@coach.ca
- Once logged in choose Making Headway In Sport from the e-learning options on the left hand side of the screen.

Signed Code of Ethics & Code of Conduct

TRAINING: Equine Theory Course (4 modules – 16 hours total) & 55 Hour Mentoring Program

NCCP Equine Theory Course

NSEF offers the NCCP Equine Theory Course. The course is usually offered over two days on a weekend or in 4 evening sessions.

The EQUINE THEORY Course is made up of four modules:

1. Equestrian Teaching and Learning
2. Planning an Equestrian Lesson
3. Analyzing Beginner Equestrian Performance
4. Making Ethical Decisions in the Equestrian Environment

Mentor Program

There are two components to the NSEF High School Credit Instructor Mentor Program.

The NSEF High School Credit Instructor Mentor Program includes 55 mentoring hours which are recorded through the Mentor Program Log Sheets. The candidate may complete these with their own coach, at an NSEF Clinic, or with another coach. Students are encouraged to mentor with multiple coaches.

The student must use an NSEF Accredited Mentor to complete the Mentor Report Form. If the candidate's mentor coach is not an NSEF accredited mentor then they can set up a day with an accredited mentor on their own or with the assistance of NSEF. The Mentor Report Form outlines the various criteria and evidences for the Instructor Evaluation. The mentor will indicate if it is felt that the student has met or not met the standards of the criteria and evidences. This will indicate to the student if there are areas for improvement or if they are prepared to proceed to the evaluation.

Both forms are pre-requisites for the NSEF High School Personal Development Instructor Program and must be submitted to the NSEF. Students are encouraged to keep a copy for their records.

Ideally, the mentor program should be completed with a Current, NCCP Certified Equestrian Instructor/Coach. However, we acknowledge that in some areas of this province it is not possible to do all 55 hours with a certified coach. Students will work with a mentor to complete the mentoring component of the NSEF Instructor High School Personal Development Credit. NSEF also offers training opportunities which will provide mentoring with Certified Coaches. A Current, NCCP Certified Equestrian Instructor/Coach will need to work with a student to complete the evaluation phase of the Mentor (which includes the completion of the Mentor Report Form).
