Welcome!

To Restless Pines Farm

Restless Pines Farm is proud to offer two Equestrian Gold & Bronze Hunter/Jumper Competitions in 2021.

Our mission is to offer first class equestrian competitions opportunities for Atlantic Canadian Riders. Despite COVID-19 we have put together an exciting lineup for 2021. Every competition features something for every level of rider and horse, from novice up to the exciting high fences in the jumper divisions.

For those of you who have been with us since our very first shows almost 20 years ago we thank you for sharing our vision. The growth of our shows over the years has been incredible and wouldn't be possible without the support of our friends and sponsors. For those of you new to Restless Pines and our competitions thank you for joining us and we look forward to building new relationships with you all.

Restless Pines has become something special in our community. It is a place for families, a place to get away from the city and take in our tremendous sport. Our team is very proud of these events and honoured that we have created something for everyone to enjoy.

The Restless Pines team of competition staff and volunteers work hard to host the Restless Pines competitions! Thank you to the riders and their families and support teams for helping us to present our 2021 events. We are grateful for your support and look forward to building new memories with you at our competitions in 2021.

Restless Pines Farm is a premium equestrian facility offering riding lessons from beginner to advanced levels for children and adults. Only 20 minutes from downtown Halifax, Restless Pines provides convenience and flexibility to today's hectic family.

At Restless Pines we strive to develop quality riders through a well thought out riding school program and top-notch lesson plans. Riders progress at a speed that is comfortable for them and are provided plenty of learning opportunities on and off the horse. Restless Pines believes every rider should be provided the core fundamentals and foundation needed to succeed in the equestrian world.

Not only does Restless Pines offer convenient lesson times, summer camps and a first class riding facility, we also offer boarding, training, and sales services. We host multiple Equestrian Canada Gold & Bronze Level horse shows per year, attracting competitors from all over the Maritimes. In addition, we host several Provincial and Training Level shows per year which provide the perfect opportunity for riders new to showing to experience a horse show at their riding ability.

About Us

As required by Article A801, every entry at an EC-sanctioned competition shall constitute an agreement by the person responsible that the owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver or rider and horse shall be subject to the EC constitution and all rules of EC and any additional rules set by the competition.

It is the responsibility of all individuals participating in any capacity in the EC-sanctioned competitions to be knowledgeable regarding the EC constitution and the applicable rules, if any, imposed by the competition. Do not participate in this EC-sanctioned competition in any capacity if you do not consent to be bound by the constitution and rules of EC and any additional rules imposed by the competition.

This series will be an amazing opportunity to bring all levels of our sport together from Grassroots athletes to our top athletes in the Maritimes. The opportunity for young athletes to have top quality facilities to learn and grow will only enhance their development and progression in the sport. Our two show series will be all about the competitor with an affordable entry, great prizes and safety measures in place. We look forward to an amazing series and hope our athletes enjoy their experience. Our sport is unique to any other as we train and develop ponies and horses. We hope everyone enjoys the new concept and hopefully continue for years to come.

The Restless Pines Competitions are a dual-sanctioned Equestrian Canada competition featuring Gold & Bronze rated divisions in the Hunter and Jumper discipline. The competition are governed by the rules and specifications of the EC Rule Book and amendments will be held and judged in accordance with said EC Rule Book. Any rule not covered by Equine Canada rules and regulations will be covered by the competition management.

Restless Pines Farm, its management, competitions organizing committee, officials or competition staff and volunteers are in no way responsible for accident, injury or damage to any rider, exhibitor, spectator, groom, attendant, trainer or other employee; or animals, nor theft, loss or damage to animals, vehicles or equipment.

Important Information

The Restless Pines Tournament and the restless Pines fall Finale competitions are sanctioned as a Bronze and Gold competition member of EQUESTRIAN CANADA 11 Hines Rd., Suite 201 Ottawa, Ontario K2K 2X1 Tel: (613) 287- 1515; Fax: (613) 248

Every class offered herein is covered by the rules and specifications of the current rules of EC and will be held and judged in accordance with the EC Rule Book.” (A602.2)

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a person, informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive, nor inhumane (A517.2). Any horse entered in any class at a competition may be selected for equine medication control testing while at the event location.” (A602.5)

Per Article A801, every entry at an EC-sanctioned competition shall constitute an agreement by the person responsible that the owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver or rider and horse shall be subject to the EC constitution and all rules of EC and any additional rules set by the competition. It is the responsibility of all individuals participating in any capacity in EC-sanctioned competitions to be knowledgeable regarding the EC constitution and the applicable rules of EC and the additional rules, if any, imposed by the competition. Do not participate in this EC- sanctioned competition in any capacity if you do not consent to be bound by the constitution and rules of EC and any additional rules imposed by the competition.” (A602.7)

PLEASE NOTE, NEW FOR 2021: All horses attending Equestrian Canada sanctioned competitions must have met the requirements of Article A519, Vaccinations. See Rules of Equestrian Canada, Section A, General Regulations, Article A519, Vaccinations.

ARTICLE A519 VACCINATIONS

All horses attending EC sanctioned competitions must have been administered Equine Influenza and Equine Herpes Virus (1 and 4) vaccinations within six (6) months (+21 days grace period) before arrival at the competition. No horse shall have received vaccination within seven (7) days prior to arrival at the event. Horses not in compliance with this rule may be asked to leave the event site at the discretion of competition management.

The frequency of vaccine administration should be as recommended by the vaccine manufacturer or veterinarian. It is recommended that vaccines be administered by or under the direction of a veterinarian. Competition management may request supporting documentation confirming a horse's compliance with mandatory vaccination requirements.

In the case of a horse that is unable to receive either of the vaccines, a letter must be provided with the entry form from a veterinarian, on official letterhead, stating the equine cannot be vaccinated due to medical concerns. At the discretion of competition management, a log of the horse's temperature prior to arrival at the event site or during the event can be requested.

EQUESTRIAN CANADA STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES Equestrian Canada (EC), the national equestrian federation of Canada, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all activities under its jurisdiction.

EC is committed to:

- Upholding the welfare of the horses, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities;
- Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect and the compassion that they deserve, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment;
- Ensuring that all Equestrians including owners, trainers and competitors, or their respective agents, use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose;
- Providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure;
- Providing current information on Code of Practice for the Care and Handling of Equines and other equine health and welfare initiatives;
- Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare;
- Requiring owners, trainers and competitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules, and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competitions; and
- Actively promoting the development and adherence of competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of the horse.

Rules & Regulations

Protect Your Head! Helmets are Mandatory

- a. See A905 and G102. At all times, persons mounted at an EC-sanctioned event location must wear approved protective headgear.
- b. Protective headgear must be certified under one of the following standards: ASTM (American Society for Testing Materials), or SEI (Safety Equipment Institute, Inc.); BSI/BS EN (British Standards Institution); EN (European Union Standards); or AS/NZS (Australian/New Zealand Standards).
- c. Protective headgear must be properly fitted and securely fastened by a safety harness permanently affixed to the helmet.

The 2021 Restless Pines Tournament and Fall Finale are conducted under the current EC Rule Book.

Applicable EC Rule Book references are sometimes noted but are not a substitute for knowledge of the actual Rule Books. Competitors are expected to know their sport rules.

Closing date for Entries:

Restless Pines Tournament – July 5th, 2021

Restless Pines Fall Finale – September 13th, 2021

Enter online ONLY at www.horseshowsonline.com

Entries not received by closing dates will be subject to a late fee of $30 (no exceptions).

Entries may not be excepted if the show has reached capacity. NO HORS CONCOURS ENTRIES. A808

1. Memberships:

- a. All Canadian owners and riders must have a valid EC Gold (or higher) or, for Bronze classes, a Bronze Sport License (A205)- (A207) OR purchase a Single Event Upgrade (A211) or License Transfer (A212) for a Silver or Bronze Sport License to Gold License; OR purchase a Temporary Sport License (A208 – not eligible for points); or be a member in good standing of their own National Equestrian Federation.
- b. Competitors also require provincial territorial sport organization (PTSO) membership.
- c. All athletes and owners must be holders of a current membership in their home country's national federation, and foreign entries must sign an affidavit.
- d. All athletes competing in Amateur classes must possess a valid EC Amateur Card and must present it to the Competition Secretary upon request (A902).
- e. Exception: Lead line riders who require only an NSEF or other PTSO membership.
- f. Please be aware that NSHJA membership is required to participate and/or benefit in the NSHJA Programs. g. Please be aware, some classes require only Bronze EC memberships, and some require Gold. If you choose to compete with a Bronze membership in Gold classes, you must upgrade your membership or purchase a single event upgrade.

2. EC Horse Recordings/FEI Passports

- a. Horse Recordings are mandatory for all horses and ponies entering EC Gold sanctioned competitions. Horses must be entered under the name and with the same owner as appearing on the Horse Recording. (A402) EC sanctioned competitions require the following (where applicable): An active Horse Recording, EC National Passport (with active Horse Recording component) or FEI Passport (with active Horse Recording component). Foreign owned horses may compete with national passports recognized by the FEI. USEF horses may compete with a valid USEF Horse Recording Number. Persons responsible for US or other foreign- owned/leased horses competing in EC-Sanctioned Competitions must complete an affidavit stating that their horse(s) are eligible to compete as entered and must declare the jumper registration number(s) that have been assigned by their respective national federation. If a Horse Recording, an EC National Passport or FEI Passport cannot be produced, the person responsible must complete a Temporary Horse Registration form and pay the temporary registration fee. Results achieved while competing with a Temporary Horse Registration may not be used to qualify for year-end awards, championship competitions, finals or subsequent competitions requiring qualification. Bronze competitors do not need an active horse recording number.

3. Equine Medication Control and Fees

- a. Any horse entered in any class at a competition may be selected for equine medication control testing while at the event location (A602.5)
- b. All EC-sanctioned competitions are required to collect a prescribed medication control fee for each horse entered. All fees collected are to be remitted using the Equestrian Canada Form to the Equestrian Canada Equine Medications Control Committee or its designate as per the Competition Administration Policy. This fee is to be identified on the entry form as a stand-alone item and not bundled or combined with other fees. (A1008).
- c. Bronze competitors pay $4.00 and Gold competitors pay $7.00.
- d. The person responsible is the individual responsible and accountable for the care, training, custody and performance of the horse. The person responsible may be the trainer or may be an owner, rider, driver, agent or coach. The person responsible must be an adult and must have an EC individual or group license, with the exception of a Junior Exhibitor parent or guardian. (A213) (A1011).

4. Eliminations

The EC “2 Refusal Elimination Rule” in all jumper, hunter and equitation classes is followed at restless Pines. The competitor has the right to jump a single obstacle after retiring or after being eliminated provided that the obstacle is part of the course of the current competition (this does not apply to elimination resulting from a fall). Falls will result in elimination, rider will not be permitted to remount.

5. Entries

- a. Entries must be received online by the Closing Date.
- b. One horse per entry form.
- c. All entries must be completed on an entry form, on line (I.e., no phone, email or Facebook entries). All entries must be complete with proper signatures, complete address, membership and passport numbers.
- d. The Show Committee has the right to refuse or limit entries as circumstances warrant.

ENTRIES ARE PROCESSED IN ORDER OF DATE/TIME RECEIVED.

- e. Substitution of entries: Will be at the discretion of the Organizing Committee.
- f. Payments: Stabling and administration fees must be paid up front with entry. Entries without payment will not be accepted.

6. Cancellations

- a. If cancellations are received in writing prior to noon 7 days before each show, all entry fees will be refunded less a $50 office charge. After this date, there will be no refunds unless the owner or rider presents an original veterinarian certificate or medical doctor’s certificate (in the case of the rider) dated within 48 hours of the commencement of the competition.
- b. There will be no refunds except in accordance with this rule.
- c. The person responsible for any horse that does not compete in a class in which it was entered and is not scratched according to these procedures is fully liable for all fees. A816.
- d. After commencement of the competition, class scratches will have no fee if scratched before the first horse competes in the class. After the first horse has competed, there are no refunds.

7. Adds/Scratches/Changes

- a. Class adds, drops (scratches) and class changes are required in writing on an official form, or on-line. In order to be refunded the class fee, scratches are due in the competition office prior to the start of the applicable class. Please note, a $20 charge per class will be added for day of adds. We encourage riders/trainers to add the day prior at no charge to allow for more accurate scheduling. Classes ridden with no written add prior to the start of the class will be charged an additional $20 Rode Not Entered Fee. Day of adds will be based on schedule availability and management approval. There is no guarantee that day of adds will be accepted. As per GR A801.9 Competitors are responsible for their own errors and those of their agents in the completion of their entry forms.
- c. Post entries will go first in all classes of that day.
- d. All scratches must be recorded in the show office. See Rule 5 above.

7. Age – Junior Riders

Individuals are juniors until the end of the calendar year in which they reach the age of 18. Juniors' ages are required to be stated on the entry form, and birth certificates are to be available on request. Riders from the United States qualify as juniors with the United States Equestrian Federation through December 1st of the year they turn 18 years of age. Equestrian Canada Rules state:

Junior A – from the beginning of the calendar year in which they turn 16 until the end of the calendar year in which they turn 18

Junior B – from the beginning of the calendar year in which they turn 13 until the end of the calendar year in which they turn 15

Junior C – until the end of the calendar year in which they turn 12.

8. Amateur Eligibility

(Article 108) Any person who has ridden on a Senior National Eventing or Jumping Team is not eligible to compete in the amateur division for a period of two years from the date of the last competition at which the athlete rode for the team. Athletes who are on the Jumping Short List for the Canadian Team for the current year are excluded from amateur classes for that year.

9. Payment

- All stabling fees, medication fees, Jump Canada Levy, NSHJA and administration fees must be paid in full prior to the competition. Entry fees may be secured with an open cheque.
- Payment can be made by cash, cheque, email money transfer.
- Cheques are to be made payable to Restless Pines Farm. No post-dated cheques.
- A signed, blank cheque is required for open accounts. Open accounts must be approved by Competition Secretary.

10. Returned Cheques

- A $50 charge will be assessed on all returned cheques.
- Unsettled accounts will be referred to EC, which will result in suspension from all EC competitions.

11. Schedule

- The Organizing Committee reserves the right to combine or cancel any class or division with insufficient entries.
- Any class/division with fewer than 4 entries may be combined, cancelled or run with no prize money offered.
- Sign up orders of go will be offered. Management requests your cooperation by being respectful of the time. The Judge has the authority to eliminate an entry for delay deemed to be unreasonable.
- Management reserves the right to make class and schedule changes at any time, subject to Article A505.

12. Concussion

Accidents & Return to Play rule: In the event of a fall/accident where a concussion can be reasonably suspected, the competitor must receive medical clearance by qualified medical personnel onsite through the EC Accident Injury Report Form before continuing to compete. The competitor is solely responsible for ensuring the onsite medical assessment takes place. Should a competitor refuse to be evaluated, they will be disqualified from the competition. If onsite qualified medical personnel suspect a concussion or believe the competitor may be at risk of concussion due to the nature of the fall or impact, the competitor will be suspended from competition and placed on a Medical Suspension List until medically released. Competitors will remain on the EC Medical Suspension List until they submit an EC Return to Play Form, signed by a licensed physician, to EC. No competitor shall compete at EC sanctioned competitions while on the EC Medical Suspension List and competition organizers may refuse entry to anyone currently on the list. A101 2.

13. Competition Numbers - Schooling Rules

- a. Numbers must be worn and visible at all times in the schooling and warm-up areas and in the competition ring (A814). Any horse wearing the incorrect number may be eliminated.
- b. FEI Schooling rules will apply.
- c. Numbers will be released ONLY when Entry Form is fully complete and payment is secured with the Show Office.

14. Attire | Formal

a. Dark, muted or similar colored, or red (scarlet) coats; white or fawn breeches, a white tie, choker (unless the shirt, by design, has the choker built in for its intended use) or hunting stock, and a white or lightly colored shirt. Traditional black or brown boots are required. Half chaps are permitted as long as the color matches the paddock boots being worn. Members of the Armed Services or the police may wear the service dress uniform with protective headgear. Classes requiring formal attire are the Grand Prix or the Hunter Classic. Riders will be notified by management where exceptions to formal attire are permitted. We ask that you please be sure you are dressed according to the protocol for the class you are entering in. See also G109.

15. Attire | Standard Jumper

Coats are not required. Breeches of any color are permitted. Shirts (polo shirts are permitted) with collars and sleeves (sleeves may be either long or short), tucked into the breeches. Sleeveless shirts and shirts with exposed hoods are not permitted. Traditional black or brown boots are required. Half chaps are permitted if the color matches the paddock boots being worn. All other classes will require standard attire. In extreme weather conditions, the use of jackets, sweaters or raincoats may be approved at management's discretion.

16. Levies

- a. NSHJA: A fee of $8.00 per horse entered in the Bronze division for the NSHJA is applicable.
- b. Jump Canada: A fee of $20 per horse entered in the Gold competition is applicable and remitted to Equestrian Canada. This is used to support regional and national programs designed to foster the activities of hunter/jumper riders, owners and the industry at large.

17. Combined Hunter Division

Divisions will be combined based on Federation Rules if not filled. One championship will be awarded per combined division.

18. Prizes: Hunter Divisions

- a. Placings to 8th place. Ribbons to 8th place.
- b. Other prizes to be awarded at the discretion of the Organizing Committee
- c. See class lists for prize money by class.

19. Presentations

- a. Hunter competitors must return to the ring for jog (unless otherwise noted) and presentation dressed appropriately and with horses in a bridle when required.
- b. Jumper competitors must be neat and tidy. Riders should be mounted for presentations.
- c. A Victory Gallop may take place for the Mini-Prix and Grand Prix classes.

Salute and respect paid to sponsors in attendance is required. Failure to cooperate may result in forfeiture of prize money.

20. Division Championships

Champion and Reserve Champion will be awarded in Hunter and Jumper divisions, with a prize to the Champion. Ties for champion or reserve champion will be decided by the horse that places higher in the over fences portion of the division, (G205) or in the case of jumpers by the horse that places higher in the class with the largest prize money. If there is still a tie, champion will be determined by a coin toss. For competition awards, EC points rules apply.

21. Stabling

Very limited stabling is available. We will be holding a schedule that allows for daily ship in and ship out. Stabling will be reserved for competitors traveling from farthest away.

22. Pony Measurement

- a. Measurement of ponies will be in the Lower Barn Saturday at 7:30 a.m.
- b. Horses may be measured randomly.
- c. ARTICLE A1104 TEMPORARY MEASUREMENT FORMS: Until a horse or pony is eight years of age, a temporary measurement form must be obtained annually. Such forms remain valid for the calendar year.

23. Schooling

- a. In the Hunter Divisions, all over fences divisions will offer an Open Schooling Card, one per horse each day. Please indicate on the entry form. No placings or ribbons.

24. General Information and Grounds Rules

- a. we have added a 2 acre parking area please use this space along with members from your stable traveling with you to park together.
- d. Damage: all owners and participants are responsible for any damage incurred by them, their agents or employees, to stalls, buildings, and other property on the competition grounds, and shall be billed accordingly.
- e. A disaster plan is in place, as per EC requirements, and available for inspection in the Competition Office.

25. Dogs

All dogs MUST be kept on a leash at all times while on the property. Unruly or noisy dogs may be asked to leave.

26. Hunter Stake and Pony Stake

Pony Hunters and Hunters must have entered and competed in a division in order to be eligible to enter the Pony Stake or Hunter Stake and must be entered in the respective Stake prior to the first class in which the pony or horse competes.

27. Jumper Nomination Fee

Jumpers must pay the applicable nomination fee unless competing in a division or class that does not require nomination. Nomination fee is non-refundable. Jumpers must enter and compete in at least one other class in a division in order to enter a Mini Prix or Grand Prix.

28. Handsfree Devices

Earphones and/or other electronic communication devices are strictly prohibited in all EC/FEI Competitions, and such usage is penalized by elimination. The use of one earbud/earphone is allowed while mounted except in the competition rings.

29. Insurance

All owners and competitors are personally responsible for damages to a third party caused by themselves, their employees, agents or their horses. They are strongly advised to hold third party insurance to cover activities at equestrian events.

30. Vet and Farrier

The official competition vet and farrier phone numbers are posted in the Competition Office and in Stabling Areas. All owners and participants are responsible for any bills for requested vet and farrier services. Any person not meeting this obligation may be deemed to be not in good standing and may be denied entry at future competitions.

31. Hospitality

Food Services will be provided by The Purple People Feeder.

32. Photography

The Organizing committee and sponsors reserves the right to use competitor photographs in promotional material and on social media unless another arrangement is made in writing with the Organizing Committee.

33. Management

Subject to EC Rules, management reserves the right to interpret all questions and conditions regarding or arising out of the competition without claims, damages or recourse of any kind. For all questions not covered in these rules, horse show management shall decide regulations, and management's decision is final. Management reserves the right to refuse, accept conditionally or to cancel any entries, disqualify riders or exhibitors, prohibit claim damages, change any course, cancel or combine any unfilled classes, reschedule classes, change rings or rotate judges, and to change specifications in jumper classes at any time.

34. Smoking

Smoking or vaping is not allowed within 6 meters of any barn or building.

35. Biosecurity

BioSecurity is everyone's responsibility! Restless Pines is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for all participants and their horses. All participants are requested to practice good disease prevention practices. Travelling and competing horses are at an increased risk for contracting and spreading contagious diseases. Avon Animal Hospital is the official Restless Pines Farm veterinarian. All horses entering the grounds must not have been in contact with any sick horses within the last 15 days. They must not exhibit any sign of illness. Any horse that has been sick or exposed to an infectious disease within the last 15 days must have their attending veterinarian contact the competition veterinarian prior to entry to the show grounds. All horses are required to be verifiably current on Influenza and EHV 1-4 vaccines (within 6 months). All horses while on the competition grounds are expected to have their temperatures taken and recorded on a daily basis during the show. Please have temperature records available upon request. We require that any horse with a rectal temperature above 38.5 C (101.8 F) report to show management and/or the show veterinarian immediately. The show veterinarian will examine any horses with an elevated temperature or other signs of illness prior to being allowed to show.

- Failure to comply may result in your horses being required to enter our quarantine isolation barn or leave the show grounds. Any horse identified to have or is suspected of having a contagious disease will be removed to the isolation area. It is advised that all competitors have a contingency plan in the event that a sick horse in their care needs to be removed from the show grounds. We require that braiders/grooms/riders use the hand sanitizers, provided in the stall areas after handling any horse. Please avoid any direct or indirect contact between horses, in particular nose to nose contact and use of any common feed/drinking buckets. The early detection of any contagious disease is the key to prevention of a disease outbreak. Following these simple requirements will be a major step in the prevention of the spread of disease. We appreciate your cooperation and look forward to everyone having a successful horse show experience.

36. Equine Vaccinations

All horses attending EC sanctioned competitions must have been administered Equine Influenza and Equine Herpes Virus (1 and 4) vaccinations within six (6) months (+21 days grace period) before arrival at the competition. No horse shall have received vaccination within seven (7) days prior to arrival at the event. Horses not in compliance with this rule may be asked to leave the event site at the discretion of competition management.

The frequency of vaccine administration should be as recommended by the vaccine manufacturer or veterinarian. It is recommended that vaccines be administered by or under the direction of a veterinarian. Competition management may request supporting documentation confirming a horse's compliance with mandatory vaccination requirements.

In the case of a horse that is unable to receive either of the vaccines, a letter must be provided with the entry form from a veterinarian, on official letterhead, stating the equine cannot be vaccinated due to medical concerns. At the discretion of competition management, a log of the horse's temperature prior to arrival at the event site or during the event can be requested.

Documentation should consist of one of the following:

- a. In the case of vaccines given by a veterinarian, the Person Responsible, upon request by Competition Management, should provide documentation from the Veterinarian, documenting that the equine in question received the vaccinations on the date administered and the name of the vaccine.
- b. In the case of vaccines administered by a person other than a veterinarian, the Person Responsible, upon request by Competition Management, should provide a receipt of the vaccine purchase which is signed by the Person Responsible, the equine's name, the serial number and expiration date of the vaccine and the date of administration.
- c. In the case of an equine that is unable to receive either of the vaccines due to a history of adverse reactions, the Person Responsible, upon request by Competition Management, should provide a letter from a veterinarian on official letterhead stating the equine cannot be vaccinated due to medical concerns and a log of the equine's temperature taken at least twice daily for the seven days prior to arrival at the competition grounds. These equines should also have their temperatures taken and recorded twice daily while on the competition grounds. The log of temperatures taken should be provided to the Competition Management, Steward, Official Veterinarian or Technical Delegate when requested. It is intended that vaccination requirement compliance will be universally enforced for all equines entering Equestrian Canada sanctioned competitions beginning in 2020.

It is the intent of Restless Pines Farm to offer a safe and healthy competition environment for all exhibitors and their horses.

DISCLAIMER: the Organizing Committee of the 2021 Restless Pines Farm their officers, directors, employees, and representatives, the officials, volunteers and employees of those responsible for this competition shall not be held responsible for any accident, illness or other damages, that may occur to a competitor, horse, spectator, rider, groom, handler, or any other person present at the competition. All owners and competitors are personally responsible for damages to third parties or property caused by themselves, their agents, or their horses.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING ENTRY FORMS

Entries must be in hand by the Monday prior to the first day of competition.

Entries will not be processed without full payment.

Ring numbers will not be issued if the entry is not paid in full.

All entry forms must be filled out completely, signed, and accompanied by full entry fees.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING IMPORTANT RULE:

(A801.6 – General Regulations – Glossary: Person Responsible)

The Person Responsible (PR) for a horse must be an adult who has, or shares responsibility for the care, training, custody, and performance of the horse and who has official responsibility for that horse under EC Rules. The PR is liable under the penalty provisions of the applicable EC Rules for any rule violations. Every entry form for an EC sanctioned competition must identify the PR and be signed by the PR.

The Person Responsible is ultimately responsible for the condition, fitness and management of the horse and is alone responsible for any act performed by himself/herself or by any other person with authorized access to the horse in the stables, elsewhere on the grounds, or while the horse is being ridden, driven or exercised.

A: For adult entries into EC sanctioned competitions the PR shall be either the trainer, the owner of the horse of the competitor who rides or drives the horse during the EC sanctioned competition.

B: For Junior entries into EC sanctioned competitions the Junior competitor cannot be the PR. For Junior entries the PR may be either the trainer, the owner of the horse, or a parent/guardian of the Junior competitor.

Entries may be mailed, faxed or hand-delivered to:

It is understood that juniors not meeting this requirement will not be allowed to compete at this competition. I hereby certify that every horse and rider named on this entry is eligible as entered and agree for myself and my representatives to be bound by the constitution and rules of Equestrian Canada at this competition. It is hereby recognized that all equestrian sports involve inherent risk of serious injury and that no helmet or protective equipment can protect against all foreseeable injury. I hereby accept this risk and hold harmless and indemnify EC, Restless Pines Farm, Heidi MacInnes, the competition organizing committee, their officials, directors, employees, volunteers and agents from and against all claims, including for any injury or loss resulting, directly or indirectly, from the negligent acts or omissions of one or more Releases or the competition. The signature of the Person Responsible (PR) hereon indicates their acceptance of this statement and agreement to the release of any information on the entry form to EC.
