

LARGE ANIMAL EMERGENCY RESCUE AWARENESS-LEVEL COURSE

Presented by Equine Guelph,
University of Guelph
and

Location:

Whinny Hill Equestrian Centre - 784 Conquerall Road,
Lunenburg, NS B4V 6C5

Date:

August 15th, 2025 (9am to 4pm) (limited to 30 participants)
(Potential to add an additional course on August 16th, details outlined on registration form)

Cost:

$150 (lunch and nutritional breaks included)
Large Group rate available, contact nsef@sportnovascotia.ca

Instructors:

Dr. Rebecca Husted, TLAER Inc. (Technical Large Animal Emergency Rescue Inc.) - contributes her time and expertise to several international committees for equine welfare (PATH, International) and is the NFPA Standard 150 technical chair and subject matter expert. Her current research includes the physiological responses to technical rescue procedures and equipment in large animals. Victor MacPherson - Lead Instructor Equine Guelph Large Animal Emergency Rescue Program & facilitator for fire services response for Farm and Food Care Ontario. Retired District Fire Chief from the Adjala-Tosorontio Fire Department, Victor works with the City of Vaughan Fire as a Master Emergency Vehicle Technician.

Primary Audience:

Firefighters, police and other first responders, including veterinary clinicians, large animal owners/handlers

Equipment Required:

PPE - green patch safety footwear, gloves, and helmet
(safety glasses optional)

Register:

Click here or scan the QR Code to register

Scan to Register

Course Information

