

The Locker: How To....

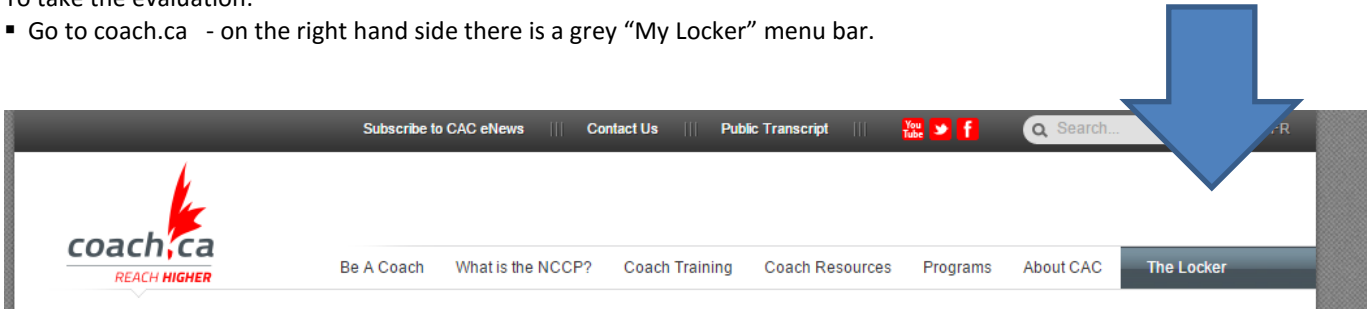

Make Ethical Decisions Online Instructor Evaluation (MED Online Evaluation)

This evaluation helps coaches identify the legal, ethical, and moral implications of difficult situations that present themselves in the world of team and individual sport. A Pass is required. By taking the Making Ethical Decisions Module of the Equestrian Theory Course, students will be better prepared to take the online evaluation.

This multisport evaluation is done online at www.coach.ca.

To take the evaluation:

- Go to coach.ca - on the right hand side there is a grey "My Locker" menu bar.

- This will take you to the Locker Login Screen.

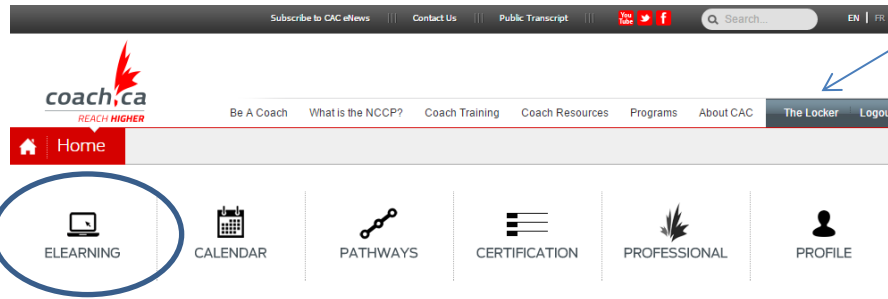

- If you have a NCCP Coaching number (NCCP#) then you will need to put it in or look it up. You may have a NCCP# if you coach another sport, taken coach training modules, or from taking/registering the Equestrian Theory Course.

- If you don't have a CC#, click on the link below the log in area to register with The Locker and follow the instructions.

- If you have difficulty with the log in or registration process, you can email coach@coach.ca or contact the NSEF Office.

- Once logged in choose E-Learning (if it is not in the pictures please check the Locker to see if it is in the drop down menu)

There should only be one type of evaluation now.

It should take you to a screen with a diagram about the type of athlete and it will take you to the evaluation.

If you need to choose these are the best choices.

From the e-learning options choose the Making Ethical Decisions Evaluation – Instruction (or Competition – Introduction) from the e-learning options on the left hand side of the screen.

Please note if you complete the MED Online Evaluation before taking the Making Ethical Decisions Training Module, there is a non-refundable $85 fee to take the evaluation. (See below). If you take the NCCP Make Ethical Decisions module before taking the MED Online Evaluation then the MED Online is free. Candidates can take the Make Ethical Decision Module through the Equestrian Theory Course or through a multi-sport training.
