COACHES / INSTRUCTORS / TRAINERS Frequently Asked Questions

- Q1. Why do I need insurance if I use a waiver?
- A1. Waivers (more commonly now referred to as Release and Acknowledgments) are a good idea and if they are legally sound they can go a long way to reduce your loss in the event of a law suit. Use of a release form is strongly encouraged as a Risk Management measure. They contribute to the lower cost of insurance by avoiding and reducing losses. Visit the equine section of our website to access risk management information on this and other related topics at www.capricmw.ca/equine.
- Q2. Can I insure my assistant coaches under this policy?
- A2. Yes. Student coaches, assistant coaches or people involved in a coach mentoring program are all treated the same way by your policy. These people are automatically covered under your policy but are subject to certain requirements. They must be 16 years of age or older with a minimum of 3 years riding experience and must be operating under your direction. If they act outside your direction during a coaching session, there is no coverage.
- Q3. Do I have to purchase extra coverage if I lease a facility year round for my coaching/instructing/training activities?
- A3. No. The coaches policy covers you during your coaching activities and if you own or lease premises year round.
- Q4. I do not own any school horses but sometimes I arrange for horses to be available to my students that are owned by someone else. The horses may or may not be insured by their owner. Am I covered for this?
- A4. Yes. Under the law, your responsibility is the same when you make arrangements for a school horse and when you actually provide the school horse.
- Q5. Why should my clients/students obtain membership in their Provincial Equine Association?
- A5. We strongly recommend that all equine industry participants maintain membership in their Provincial Equine Association to take advantage of the many membership benefits, including insurance. Several reasons why your clients/students should consider insurance include:
- Accident Insurance is readily available and will protect your clients/students in the unlikely event that they suffer an injury while participating in your lesson program. Parents will be keenly interested in protecting their children but this is a good idea for everyone.
 - Some of your clients/students will either own/lease or borrow a horse from you or someone else. Therefore, Liability insurance for them will potentially become very important. The sooner they become aware of their risk exposures the better.
 - This coverage, and much more, are available to your clients/students by joining their Provincial Equine Association.
- Q6. Are barn staff hired under Contract covered by my coaching insurance policy?
- A6. No. If barn staff are independent contractors (not registered with Canada Revenue Agency as employees of your business), they are not covered by your policy. We are pleased to offer these independent equine professionals a separate policy designed specifically for grooms. Please contact our office.
- Q7. Are commercial equine operations insured under this policy?
- A7. The intent of this policy is to, first, insure your coaching and instruction activities. The following may be accommodated under the Policy:
- Boarding of an equine
 - Equine Shows or Competitions
 - Clinics
 - School Horses (owned, leased or owned)
 - Training of Horses
- Q8. I have heard that equine coaches across Canada from all disciplines are being offered the opportunity to obtain a License. What is this and why should I consider it?
- A8. Your Provincial /Territorial Equine Association (PTSO) in collaboration with Equestrian Canada - the National Sport Organization (NSO) are implementing Federal Government mandated guidance to protect athletes in all sports, including equine, from Harassment and Abuse. In partnership with your Provincial / Territorial Sport Organization (PTSO), we support those coaches who have taken a professional approach to obtaining a credential, including this status program. For coaches who wish to attend Equestrian Canada sanctioned competitions with their clients, "status" will soon be required. More information can be found on your PTSO website and the website of Equestrian Canada.
- Q9. Does my policy cover me for liability claims arising from COVID-19 or other communicable disease?
- A9. No. Underwriters at Lloyd's of London have embedded a specific exclusion in the wording related to this. The Exclusion and response to the pandemic is consistent with what we are seeing from Insurers around the world
